How To Use the New Scheduling Engine on Mac Based Web Browsers

How To Use the New Scheduling Engine on Mac Based Web Browsers

Powerschool supports the use of the following web browsers for Powerscheduler Scheduling Engine use:

Supported Browsers

- Firefox - Latest two versions (OSX 10.8, 10.9, and 10.10)
- Chrome - Latest two versions (OSX 10.8, 10.9, and 10.10)
- Safari – 6 on OSX 10.8, 7 on OSX 10.9, 8 on OSX 10.10

Firefox

1. On the start page, choose PowerScheduler under Applications in the main menu. The Scheduling page appears.
2. Click either the Build or Load link
3. Select the procedure selections as normal.
4. Click 'Execute'.
5. A 'Opening engine.psengine' dialog with Open with [SchedulingLauncher (default)] selected will appear, select OK.
6. The Scheduling Engine icon will appear in the Task Tray, and go away when complete.
7. Select the appropriate (Q) to view the results.

Chrome

1. On the start page, choose PowerScheduler under Applications in the main menu. The Scheduling page appears.
2. Click either the Build or Load link
3. Select the procedure selections as normal.
4. Click 'Execute'.
5. An engine.psengine file will appear at the bottom of the page.
6. Double Click on the file. The Scheduling Engine icon will appear in the Task Tray, and go away when complete.
7. Select the appropriate (Q) to view the results.

Safari

1. On the start page, choose PowerScheduler under Applications in the main menu. The Scheduling page appears.
2. Click either the Build or Load link
3. Select the procedure selections as normal.
4. Click 'Execute'.
5. Select the 'Downloads' arrow in the upper right corner of the browser.
6. Double Click the engine.psengine file. The Scheduling Engine icon will appear in the Task Tray, and go away when complete.
7. Select the appropriate (Q) to view the results.

Sort Comments By   Posted On

Additional Details
ID: 73758
Published On: 03/02/2015
Published By: Mike Jackson
Modified On: 03/02/2015
Modified By: Mike Jackson
Type: Walkthrough
Versions Found: 7.9.0.0.185579

Who can view this
All Site Users